AWARD

This is an Industrial dispute referred to this Tribunal for adjudication by the Government of Kerala as per Order No: G. O. Rt. 1726/68/LSWD. dated 20-5-1968. The issues referred are the following:

1. Permanency of temporary workers.
2. Dismissal of Sri M. Raghavan Nambiar from 2-12-1967.

Notice was issued to all the parties and the Unions 1 and 2 appeared before this court and filed their statement. Registered notice was issued to Union No. 3 and it was returned with an endorsement by the postal authorities that such a union is not functioning. So they were declared exparte. Subsequently Western India Cottons National Labour Union filed a petition saying they are also intersted in the issues hence they also should be impleaded. This was opposed by the management and are other unions also. The matter was heard and it was found that they also necessary parties and they were impleaded. They also filed their statement. This was followed by the reply statement by the management and the rejoinder of the union. At a later stage a statement was filed signed by the management and the secretary of the Cannanore District Textile Mill Workers' Union. This is in full and final settlement of Issue No. 2 and the settlement is shown in the Annexure and an award in terms of this settlement is passed regarding issue No. 2.

2. There was nobody to represent unions 1 and 4 and they were declared exparte and registered notices were issued to them. The secretary of the union No. IV appeared before this court and requested some time more to get ready with the case and that was allowed and finally when the matter was taken up on 26-3-1971 the secretary of the Union No. 4 and the counsel for the management have made an endorsement as shown in Annexure B. It is stated that they are not pressing the dispute. In view of this this dispute with regard to Issue No. I is rejected. This award shall come into force on the expiry of 30 days after its publication in the Government Gazette.

Short Recital of the Case

A dispute arose between the management of M/s. K. E. Kesavan & Co. Cochin-2 and their dismissed worker Sri A. P. Sasidharan, represented by the Fish Factory and Cold Storage Workers Union, Palluruthy, Cochin-6 over the issue relating to the dismissal of the above worker effective from 20-8-1970 on a charge of misconduct. As voluntary negotiation between the parties and conciliation failed to resolve the dispute, Govt. as per G. O. Rt. No. 22/70/LSWD dated 8-1-1971 referred the dispute to the Industrial Tribunal, Calicut and the same has been registered as I. D. No. 4 of 71 on the file of the Tribunal [and stands posted to 22-3-1971 for appearance. In the meanwhile further direct negotiations and discussions were held between the parties and the dispute was amicably settled out of Court and the following terms of settlement reached.

Terms of Settlement

1. The Management as a gusture of goodwill agrees to convert the punishment of dismissal meted out the employee Sri A. P. Sasidharan to one of discharge and agrees to pay him a lump sum of Rs. 1,000 (Rupees one thousand only) towards retrenchment compensation, bonus and in full and final settlement of all his claims with the management. He will have no further claims against the management including claim for re-employment. The above amount will be paid to the worker on proper receipt duly attested by the Union on 19-3-1971. In view of the settlement the Union agrees to withdraw the sathyagraha and other forms of direct action forthwith.

2. The Union agree that the issue regarding dismissal referred for adjudication by the Kerala Government in I. D. No. 4/71 will be withdrawn and will not be pursued before the Industrial Tribunal, Calicut. The Union also agrees to file jointly with the managements a copy of the settlement before the I. T. Calicut praying that an award be passed in terms of the settlement.

PART I—General

The rates tendered by a Contractor for the work shall include the cost of—

(a) All labour and supervision thereof, all materials, tools, implements and plant of every description, ladders, cordage, tackle, etc., as well as the provision of safe and substantial scaffolding required for the proper execution of the work in conformity with the specifications for the various items of work;

(b) Supplying the requisite agency with necessary equipments, to set out the work as well as to afford facilities for such examination of the work as the Departmental Officers may, at any time consider desirable, as also to count, weigh and assist in the measurement, or check measurement of the work or materials;

(c) Providing and maintaining all temporary fences, shelters, lights, watchmen and danger signals and such other precautions as are necessary, for the protection of the work or materials, as well as to protect the public and those connected with the work from accidents at the site of, or on account of the work;

(d) All sheds, mortar mills and mixing platform of every kind required for the proper execution of the work according to the specification;

(e) All fees and royalties of materials; and

(f) Finally clearing away of all rubbish, surplus materials, plant, etc., on completion of the work and dressing and levelling off and restoring the site to a tidy condition, prior to handing over the work to the Division Officer or his authorised assistant and also its maintenance until so taken over.

2. In the case of supplies of materials such rubble, broken stones, gravel, sand, etc. which may have to be measured prior to being used on the work the Contractor must always stack or arrange them neatly on level ground or on ground cleared and levelled by him for the purpose in such manner as may be ordered by the Officer-in-charge so that they may be easily susceptible of inspection and measurement, the cost of such clearing, levelling and stacking or arranging being included in the rates for work. Each stack must be straight and of uniform section throughout and of the dimensions specified by Officer-in-charge. Materials not stacked or arranged in accordance with instructions issued will not be measured and paid for.

3. The Contractor shall be bound to bear the expense of defence of any action or law Proceedings that may be brought by person for any injury sustained owing to neglect of above precautions in connection with the execution of the work, and to pay any damages and cost which may be awarded in consequence.

4. The Contractor shall also help himself out of any difficulties of penalities arising from interference with private property in the execution of the contract.

5. The tenderer should state whether he has all the plant necessary for the execution of the work. If, in the opinion of the Division Officer, Contractor's own plant is neither sufficient nor suitable for the proper execution of the work, the Department may supply other available plant and recover reasonable hire for the same. The Division Officer's decision in the matter shall be final and binding on the Contractor.

6. The Contractor shall bear the running expences inclusive of pay of the departmental staff attached to such plant and cost of repairs of all Government plant while in his possession on hire as also the cost of restoring the same in good condition at the time of return, due allowance being made for fair wear and tear.

7. All materials and plant that are to be made over to the Contractor by the Department shall be handed over to him at the Division Office or Store Yards at Division Head quarters or the P. W. D. District Stores and the charges, for their handling, loading and unloading, and conveyance to and fro for the respective work as also for stacking the materials neatly and in regular heaps on the ground or sheds to which they are brought shall be deemed to be included in the rates for the work.

8. Unless otherwise specifically provided for in the contract, the Contractor shall at his own cost keep all portions of the work free from water whether due to springs, soakage, or inclement weather and in a neat and sanitary condition and shall also see that drainage and sewage are prevented from entering the site of work or accumulating therein.

9. The Contractor shall be responsible for the proper use and bear the cost of protection of materials made over to him by the Department for use on the work and bear any loss from deterioration or from faulty workmanship or any other cause. The cost of materials thus allowed to deteriorate amounting as it does to an excess issue over sanctioned quantities, will be recovered at rate 20 per cent over the actual cost. The orders of the Division Officer in the matter shall be final and binding on the Contractor.

10. The Contractor shall be responsible to see that the level or other pegs, profiles, bench marks, masonry pillars or other marks set up by the Department for guidance in the execution of the work are not disturbed, removed or destroyed. If any such marks are in the opinion of the Division Officer found disturbed, removed or destroyed, they will be replaced by the department at the cost of the Contractor.

11. Any materials brought to the site of work, or any work done by the Contractor but rejected by the Officer-in-charge as being not up to the specifications shall in the case of materials supplied be then and there removed from or broken up at the site of work, and in the case of work done be dismantled or rectified at the expense of the Contractor as may be ordered by the Officer-in-charge.

12. In all cases whether so specified in the contract or not, the work shall be executed in strict accordance with the Contractor's accepted tender and these specifications and with such further drawings and specifications and orders as may from time to time be issued by the Division Officer.

13. Whenever the Contractor is ordered by the Division Officer or his authorised assistant or subordinate to execute any item of work which is not in the tender, it shall be the Contractor's duty to get a special price arranged for the item and to see that it is written in the workspot order book (which shall be provided by the Division Officer and kept in the work by the subordinate in charge) and that this order is initialled and dated by the Contractor and the Officer ordering that particular item of work. For any extra item executed by the Contractor and not so entered in the workspot order book and initialled both by the Contractor and the Departmental Officer ordering such extra item that Contractor shall have no claim for extra payment.

14. Any dispute or difference that may arise between the Division Officer and the Contractor on account of the contract, shall at the instance of either party be referred to the Chief Engineer, Kerala P. W. D. whose decision given in writing shall be final, conclusive and binding. The Division Officer may at his discretion delegate in writing, to any of his subordinates any of his powers regarding these specifications.
